January 23, 2007

The Honorable Richard B. Cheney
President of the Senate
Washington, DC 20510-0001

Dear Mr. President:

This letter is notification of a Department of Navy decision to conduct a public-private competition as set forth in Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76. The Manpower, Personnel, Training, and Education Command's A76 public-private competition will include administrative support services currently performed by 284 civilian and 202 military personnel nationwide as listed in the enclosure.

The A-76 public-private competition will determine whether the functions will be contracted to industry or performed by civilian personnel of the Department of the Navy. The estimated cost to compete the 486 positions is $1.4M which is included in the Operations and Maintenance, Navy Budget Line Item 4A1M. The estimated length of the competition is 12 months from public announcement.

Conversion to contract performance will occur only if the competition process reveals that contracting is the most cost effective method of performing the functions. The Department of Navy will notify your office if the competition results in a decision to convert to contract performance.

A similar letter has been sent to the Speaker of the House and Chairmen Inouye, Levin, Murtha, and Skelton. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "BJ Penn", is located below the "Sincerely," text.

MEMORANDUM FOR INTERESTED MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

Subj: PUBLIC-PRIVATE COMPETITION FOR OMB CIRCULAR A-76

Encl: (1) Congressional Supplemental Notification of Public-Private Competition

1. Appreciating your interest in the current plans, programs and policies of the Department of the Navy, please be advised that the Navy is conducting a public-private competition under OMB Circular A-76 for administrative support service functions located at the Manpower, Personnel, Training and Education Command's in Castine, Maine and Northfield, Vermont.
2. I notified you via letter dated January 24, 2007 of this competition. This letter is a supplemental notification of the inclusion of two additional civilian positions for this public-private competition. These positions are located in Castine, Maine and Northfield, Vermont. The total number of military personnel remains the same at 202 and the total number of civilians in the competition has increased from 284 to 286.
3. Conversion to commercial contract will occur only if the competition process reveals that contracting is the lowest cost, technically acceptable method of performing the function. The Navy will notify Congress under separate correspondence of the public-private competition results.
4. The Office of Legislative Affairs point of contact is Ms. Louise Vitale at (703) 697-2880.

Sincerely,

J. J. COLGARE
Captain, U.S. Navy
Deputy Chief of Legislative Affairs

Dear Mr. President:

This letter provides supplemental notification of the Department of Navy decision to conduct a public-private competition as set forth in Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76. I notified you via letter dated January 24, 2007 of the Manpower, Personnel, Training, and Education Command's A-76 public-private competition which includes administrative support service functions performed by 284 civilian and 202 military personnel nation-wide.

Consistent with my effort to keep Congress informed of the current plans, programs, and policies of the Department of Navy's Competitive Sourcing Program, this letter is a supplemental notification of the inclusion of two additional civilian positions for this public-private competition. These positions are located in Castine, ME and Northfield, VT. The total civilians in the competition are thus increased from 284 to 286.

A similar letter has been sent to the Speaker of the House and Chairmen Inouye, Levin, Murtha, and Skelton. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Madam Speaker:

This letter provides supplemental notification of the Department of Navy decision to conduct a public-private competition as set forth in Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76. I notified you via letter dated January 24, 2007 of the Manpower, Personnel, Training, and Education Command's A-76 public-private competition which includes administrative support service functions performed by 284 civilian and 202 military personnel nation-wide.

Consistent with my effort to keep Congress informed of the current plans, programs, and policies of the Department of Navy's Competitive Sourcing Program, this letter is a supplemental notification of the inclusion of two additional civilian positions for this public-private competition. These positions are located in Castine, ME and Northfield, VT. The total civilians in the competition are thus increased from 284 to 286.

A similar letter has been sent to the President of the Senate and Chairmen Inouye, Levin, Murtha, and Skelton. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,
